

To Whom It May Concern:

Tarrytown Third Friday is a monthly festival held on the streets of Tarrytown, NY. We had the pleasure of booking Black Moon Groove as our entertainment last year and found them to be extremely professional, highly skilled musicians who could not have been easier to work with.

Third Friday is an outdoor, community event that has to appeal to many age groups including a great number of young families. Rock music has a pretty much universal appeal being appreciated by young and old alike. However, it is rare to find a group of musicians with the obvious 'rock chops' of Black Moon Groove, who are willing to embrace, engage and satisfy an audience ranging in years from one to seventy plus.

On a technical note, their sound quality was very good, which is not easily achieved when performing on the street. The band provided all their own equipment, cabling and connectors and could not have been more professional and obliging.

Everyone enjoyed the performance enormously and I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Black Moon Groove. Please feel free to contact me in the event of any questions.
